CONGRESSMAN CARTER WILL SPEAK BEFORE NILES CIVIC BODY

Garbage Disposal Committee Reports at Tuesday Gathering

Presence of Congressman Albert E. Carter as the guest of honor will be the feature of next Tuesday's regular meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce it was announced at this week's session of the Niles civic body.

Carter is the congressional representative from this district. He has served two terms at Washington. Although he has not been asked to speak on any definite subject it is expected the congressman will address the assemblage on congressional activities in connection with this section of the state and Alameda county.

Dr. E. C. Grau, chairman of the health committee, made a report on the garbage disposal question at this week's meeting. He said the committee had investigated all the dumping grounds and had decided those at the end of School street and G street constituted the greatest problem. It was the opinion of the committee that the School street dump should be closed and also the one at the foot of I street, and that signs should be erected warning anyone against dumping at these places.

It also was advised that the use of the present hole at the foot of G street should be discontinued and efforts be made to obtain the use of a larger and more adequate hole a short distance away, with a sign posted telling garbage dumpers where to deposit their wastes. The appointment of a caretaker to see that everyone disposed the garbage properly also was suggested by the committee.

No definite action was taken upon the suggestions of the health committee, it being decided that the committe talk the matter over with J. C. Shinn, owner of the property where the dumping is done, and make another report next week.

The question of meeting the annual Boy Scout quota of $200 with which the chamber sponsors the Niles scout troop and keeps it affiliated with the national scout council, came up for discussion again this week. Dr. R. H. Bennett, member of the scout committee, praised the activities of the local troop and declared that they were worthy of support. Appointment of a committee to take charge of the task of meeting the quota was reserved until next week.

Announcement was made by Harvey Braun that members of the road committe had met with the county supervisor and engineer and George Roeding, Jr., of the California Nursery, last Friday afternoon and discussed the extension of Main street through the nursery grounds. The ground through which the pro

FILIPINOS PLAY HEAVY ROLE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Last Wednesday evening was apparently Filipino night in Niles, judging from the prominent part played by members of that race in the events transpiring that night.

About 7:30 Wednesday night six Filipinos from Mountain View, riding toward Oakland in a large sedan overturned on the highway in front of the Garden of Allah dance hall and badly shattered the top of the car. No one was injured.

The brakes on the machine apparently locked suddenly and caused it to overturn. The wrecked car was towed to a garage in Niles.

At approximately 11:30 of the same evening another car filled with Filipinos, from Gilroy, struck a machine belonging to Joe Dequadros which was parked in front of a Niles restaurant. The Dequadros machine was driven into another car parked alongside, the latter being knocked onto the sidewalk and coming to rest in the entrance to the restaurant.

The back, the fenders and the running board of the Dequadros car were badly damaged. The owner of the Filipino machine was forced to pay the damages. No reason for the accident was ascertained.

RUMMAGE SALE PLANS MADE AT TOYON MEETING

Toyon Branch of the Children's Hospital of Alameda county held its regular meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shinn, secretary, at which time plans for the coming second annual rummage sale were discussed. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. James R. Whipple, and a committee appointed to take charge of the rummage sale.

This sale will be held on October 29, 30 and 31 in Niles in the vacant store room next to the Wesley hotel. The use of the room was given by Italo Pratali, for which the members of the organization are thankful.

The Toyon branch wishes to extend a message to the residents of Washington township not to forget the dates on which the sale will be held and also to ask the assistance of the community in donating various articles to be sold. Anything from old furniture to clothing will be acceptable.

The funds derived from the sale go toward the upkeep of the Children's hospital in Oakland, which extends charitable aid to those children needing it. The sale last year was generously supported and the Toyon branch wishes to repeat this year.

Mrs. William Eberly was appointed chairman of the committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. J. C. Shinn, Mrs. William Ford, Mrs. Lawrence Bunting and Mrs. R. Donovan, of Niles; Mrs. August May and Miss Mildred Nauert, of Alvarado; and Mrs. Mueller, of Newark.

Anyone wishing to contribute articles to the rummage sale can turn them over to anyone of the committee members or get in touch with any member of the organization.

Plans also were discussed at Monday's meeting for the annual Toyon branch bazaar to be held some time next month in Oakland also for the benefit of the Children's hospital.

STAGE SET FOR MUSICAL TREAT FRIDAY EVENING

Audience Will Hear Both Classical and Jazz Selections.

Friday night will be a gala night for musical lovers in Washington township, for that is the date of the presentation of the fourth annual recital by Oliver Campos and his pupils in the Washington Union high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. Campos and his proteges have been extending their utmost efforts to make this the best recital in years, and everything is set for the staging of a real musical treat for all those who attend.

There is no admission charge and the public has been cordially invited to be present and hear the best Washington township has to offer in the way of amateur musical talent.

Over forty pupils will participate in this annual classic, which will be made up of both classical and jazz numbers. The program is somewhat unique in that classical, jazz and ballad selections will be presented. Those who have no ear for the fast moving strains of jazz will have the opportunity of listening to the enchanting air of Rubenstein's famous classic, "Kammenoi-Ostrow," as played by Miss Eldora Perry, of Sunol, or the inspiring notes of one of Litz's best known pieces, "Dream of Love," as rendered by Marjorie Perry.

And those who feel no stirring of their musical pulse at the above numbers may be roused by the swift action of such well-known "hot" numbers as "I'm Gonna Get You," "Me," and "Sweet and Lonely," as well as other latest song hits of the day.

In addition to the music offered by Campos' pupils, arrangements have been made by Mr. McClellan, Washington township schools band teacher, to have the services of an orchestra to keep the audience entertained before the curtain rises. The orchestra will be selected from the various grammar schools in the township.

A list of those who will take part in the program was published in last week's issue of the Township Register.

MANY DELEGATES PRESENT TO VISIT MASONIC HOME

Visitors Taken for Tour of Building and Grounds.

Entertaining approximately one thousand Masons from all over the state, the annual official visiting and inspection day at the Masonic home near Niles was held on Monday of this week.

Among the notable officials present, were officers of the grand lodge and members of the board of trustees of the home.

Official representatives from Masonic lodges over the state were present to inspect the home and meet the inmates. The visiting delegates were taken for a tour of the dining rooms, kitchens, sleeping quarters, living rooms, and other sections by members and officials of the home. Many of them met friends who were residents of the home.

A delightful musical program consisting of both vocal and instrumental numbers by talented artists was provided for the entertainment of the delegates. Light refreshments also were served.

Harkman.

There are three hundred and thirty-three inmates at the home at the present time, which is considerable increase over that of last year.

Estimates On Nursery Damages Are Being Prepared

Possibility that the Main street extension may be completed to the Alvarado road sometime within the next year seems somewhat brighter after a conference held last Friday afternoon at the California nursery between Ralph V. Richmond, county supervisor, George Posey, county engineer, members of the Niles Chamber of Commerce road committee, and George Roeding, Jr., head of the nursery interests, for the purpose of reaching some definite decision on the question of further extension of the road.

Previous to the meeting rumors were about that the reason for cessation of work at its present point was due to opposition on the part of the nursery interests. If not actual opposition to the road going through the property, placing such an obstacle in the way of extension that it might well constitute opposition. Officials of the nursery had repeatedly denied this, thus Friday's conference was called to get the matter straight in the minds of everyone concerned.

Although the conference was not open to the public, Roeding deeming it advisable that even the press should not be present, a statement was issued summarizing the results of the afternoon's session.

Those present went over the ground of the proposed road extension completely and observed what would have to be done. The statement declared that estimates will be made of moving buildings, plants, signs, fences and large trees; also allowable damage to property and business. As soon as the proper study is made and estimates agreed upon the entire matter will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors.

According to members of the Chamber of Commerce road committee in attendance at the conference, the county engineer and county architect are making estimates at present as to the costs of making the extension through

THAT SPARK TO "ELECTRIFY" BUSINESS

WILLIAM GREEN, president of the American Federation of Labor, is quoted in a dispatch from Vancouver, British Columbia, as saying that the legalizing of beer would "electrify" industry, and "be the spark that would start the return to prosperity."

Green is entitled to his opinion, and to have his view broadcast. But it is not the view of the rank and file of organized labor. It may be the view of professional unionism, but it is not the view or the tenet of that great body of sober, industrious laborers and mechanics that is the bulwark of American industry.

Upon what premise the president of the American Federation of Labor reached the conclusion that the open saloon with beer flowing freely would bring back prosperity to any other than the bar-keeper is beyond the penetration of the average analytic mind.

Would money spent in the corner saloon bring prosperity back for the automotive industry? What manner of reasoning permits one to arrive at this conclusion? The worker spending, say twenty per

MOTORISTS URGED TO TURN ON LIGHTS SOON AS SUN SETS

"Turn on your headlights when the sun goes down—do not wait for darkness to set in. The largest number of accidents occur between four and seven p. m."

This warning is contained in a bulletin received recently from Mrs. James R. Whipple, member of safety conference of the aCliforna State Chamber of Commerce, urging all motorists to have their headlights adjusted during this month.

"Good headlights are of major importance in preventing automobile accidents. Motorists cannot drive with their eyes closed, neitther can they drive at night without adequate headlights. Proper adjustment of lights, besides preventing glare, increases vision. The majority of drivers can tell when the lights on an approaching car are out of adjustment, but, not more than one in every ten motorists knows when his own lights are illegal. Lights are badly adjusted when they illuminate the faces of the occupants of an approaching car.

"In the interest of safety, every motorist should carry spare globes, have headlights adjusted so as to eliminate glare, have headlights and tail lights water-proofed to guard against the danger of lights going out."

WASHINGTON HIGH OPENS LEAGUE WITH VICTORY OVER AMADOR DONS

Rough Contest Terminates In 7 to 0 Score for Cornhuskers.

Washington Union high school gridironists appropriately celebrated the opening of the Southern Alameda county football league by administering a 7 to 0 beating to their bitter rivals, the Amador Dons, of Pleasanton, on the high school grounds Friday afternoon.

Roughness featured the contest, which was a battle royal from the opening whistle. Both teams were out for blood, and as a result the spectators were treated to everything from fisticuffs to holding in the clinches. Additional excitement was added to the struggle when Garcia, hefty Washington high tackle, resenting the actions of a Pleasanton man, unleashed a solid wallop for his chin, but the attempt to stage a fistic classic was halted by officials before serious damage was done to either of the participants.

The only score of the game came in the second quarter when the Cornhuskers took the ball on a punt and marched steadily down the field on a series of line bucks to cross the Dons' goal line. Fontes figured chiefly in the long drive which netted several first downs. He carried the oval into scoring territory and added the extra point with his toe. A bad pass from center made it impossible for the contemplated place kick, so Fontes neatly dropkicked the ball suqarely between the uprights.

In the second quarter a spectacular play was staged by Pleasanton which almost netted them a touchdown. George, playing quarter for the Dons, was back on his own five yard in a punting position. Faking the kick he dashed around end and evaded the entire opposition defense to gallop down the field approximately sixty yards before he stumbled and fell. Nothing remained between him and the goal line at the time of his stumble. The ball was in scoring position but no progress could be made against the Washington line and Pleasanton lost the ball on downs.

Washington high played a defensive game throughout the second half, kicking whenever they gained possession of the ball. All attempts on the part of the Dons to penetrate Washington territory for any distance was repulsed by Coach Regli's fighting eleven. Almost the entire contest was played in Pleasanton territory.

On the whole the Cornhuskers displayed much improvement over the brand of ball played in the game against Pittsburgh two weeks ago. They were overbrimming with fight every moment of the contest and showed they had the punch to win football games. With the same determination evinced in Friday's game the Cornhuskers can be expected to go a long ways toward annexing the championship of the league this season.

The starting lineup for Washington included Logan and Aust, ends; Garcia and Weed, tackles; Kato and Knobles, guards; Booras, center, and Fontes, Gularte, and Salvadorina, backs.

One of the hardest tests of the season will come for Coach Regli's men this week when they face the strong Livermore eleven Friday afternoon on the Washington high grounds. Livermore has gained the reputation of having a hard battering squad which strews the opposition about the field like grain before the scythe, and have been appropriately dubbed the "Bone-crushers." They gained nation wide publicity some weeks ago in a game with Danville high when several men were sent to the hospital as a result of the fracas.

Tracy, Danville and the Pittsburg second teams have already succumbed to the beef and brawn of the Livermore boys and they feel confident of having the Cornhuskers' scalp hanging at their belts after the game Friday. However, Washington high is just as determined they will beat the Bonecrushers at their own game and feel they are a match for any tactics the visitors may offer. Thus plenty of action is assured for this week's contest.

The game is scheduled to begin at 3:30.

Plans have been made for making a turf field of the now dirt gridiron at the high school. Grass will be sowed as soon as the last home game is played. The field is well drained at present and all that is needed to make an ideal turf ground is the grass and proper watering. The upkeep of such a project is no more than that of a dirt gridiron.

REBEKAHS HOLD DISTRICT SESSION AT PLEASANTON

A district meeting of Rebekah lodges was held Monday night in Pleasanton with Mrs. R. Gronley, of Centerville, district deputy president, presiding. About two hundred Rebekahs from all parts of the district were present.

An enjoyable program of entertainment was presented, after which refreshments were served. Representatives of all lodges took part in a school of instruction.

Bridge Whist Party At Miss Emerson's

Miss Lou Emerson entertained eight of her friends at a bridge and whist party last Friday. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. L. Sturtevant captured first honor in the card play. Mrs. R. Reynolds was second, while Miss Weston was awarded the consolation.

Play Will Feature P. T. A. Meeting

The regular meeting of the Centerville P. T. A. will be held in the grammar school next Tuesday. The teachers are sponsoring a program and are entertaining the mothers afterwards. Pupils of the schools will present a play at the gathering.

Divided all Rome

The Green chariot wins! Or perhaps the Blue, the Red, or the White. For each racing chariot was painted one of these colors, which symbolized the four Roman political parties.

Today, crude Roman paints would be useless. Modern paints, put to countless uses in home and industry, are the result of science and research.

California's paint manufacturers, famed for quality products, expend over $1,800,000 in yearly wages; buy 14 million dollars of raw materials every year.

Oh, for food that will not give
The cramps to my little boy.
Oh, for the boon once more of a night
Of solid square repose.
'Tis this, and only this, I want;
Oh, give me an old time doze.

Prosperity Omen Detected In Delinquent Tax Payments

"Signs of better times" are indicated in reports on collection of delinquent taxes made public last week by Horace P. Ross, auditor of Alameda county. Actual money paid in to redeem property sold for non-payment of taxes in the fiscal year 1930-1931 is twenty percent over similar payments in 1930, the figures show.

"Analysis of such payments is of course difficult in these times," Ross pointed out. "In general however, a twenty percent increase in redemptions would seem to prove that times are getting better. Property owners cannot pay taxes when they haven't the cash—and the cash has certainly loosened up during the first part of this fiscal year.

"Redemptions clearly prove one point also—namely that general business is on the increase. A far greater number of downtown merchants and property owners have paid their delinquencies than did so in the same period of 1930. That means that retail sales in the larger cities of Alameda county must be on the rise—a further indication that retail trade reports submitted by the chamber of commerce and other statistical bodies are correct.

"The county auditor's office is charged by law with receipt of all tax redemption monies, and is therefore in a position to feel the general business pulse. I am happy to be able to make such a favorable report on general conditions."

Ross's figures follows, for the months of August and September: August collections for 1930: $65,797.77; for 1931: $90,953.24; September collections for 1930: $87,587.78; for 1931: $94,971.70. The total 1931 increase of collections over 1930: $32,539.39.

AMERICAN LEGION TO SPONSOR BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

State Commander Lauds Activity of Youth Organization.

Characterizing the Boy Scout movement as the greatest youth movement of all time, Van Hogan, state commander of the American Legion, announced this week that his program for legion activities in this state this year will include plans for every one of the posts of the organization to sponsor at least one Scout troop.

"The Boy Scout movement holds a tremendous promise for the continuance of our democracy," said Hogan. "Its growth is only dependent on leadership. The movement rightfully demands the most vigorous and sympathetic interest of the legion. If our organization can help to get this program over to the maximum number of boys, then we will have no cause to fear communism and radicalism.

"Already scouting has profoundly affected the lives of more than 250,000 boys in California. By virtue of their contact with scouting a great number of them have become better boys, and subsequently will be capable and useful citizens. The movement makes health, strength, happiness and practical education. It develops initiative, resourcefulness and good citizenship. It destroys prejudice and fosters good will.

"The greatest need of the movement today is intelligent volunteer leadership. Every legion post should sponsor at least one troop and furnish the maximum number of volunteer leaders."

VIRGIE DELUCCHI GIVEN SURPRISE SHOWER TUESDAY

Native Daughters Give Affair at Pleasanton Odd Fellows' Hall

Miss Virgie Delucchi was the honored guest at a surprise shower given by the Native Daughters, of Pleasanton, at a meeting held in the Odd Fellows' hall last week.

Miss Delucchi is the manager of the Pleasanton telephone office and is to become the bride of Lloyd Perry, employed at the Rosa barber shop, in the near future. The young couple have not set the date of their marriage, but expect it to be sometime this winter.

There were approximately thirty-five guests present, all of whom were members of the lodge. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Evelyn Perry, of Oakland, district deputy, and Mrs. Emma Bonne, of Livermore.

After the guests were entertained by games, they were served refreshments on tables decorated in orange and black. Those who were in charge of the decorations were Bernice Lewis, Myrtle Lanini, Agnes Rose, and Anna Silva.

Miss Gladys Rose was chairman of the entertanment committee; and Anna Silva, the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson had as dinner guests on Thursday evening Mr and Mrs. Fogelsang and Mr. and Mrs. Parketa, of Oakland.

Winner of Slogan Contest To Receive Five Dollar Prize

A spook dance is to be staged by the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce November 7, it was decided at a meeting of that body two weeks ago. It has been unofficially announced that the proceeds of the dance will be turned over to the tennis court fund. This plan will probably be confirmed by official action of the members later.

Prelimniary plans for the dance call for an amy or so of skeletons, several squads of the best assorted ghosts, a detail of witches (with broomsticks), and the blackest of black cats.

At the top of the list of business matters taken up by the chamber in addition to the dance was the resolution to continue the chamber's investigation of lighting possibilities on Main street, Pleasanton. A committee was appointed to look into several different lighting methods and prepare a report to contain erection, operation, and maintenance costs, as well as any other facts which the committee may find to be pertinent to the matter.

A motion was passed tabling any contemplated action in regard to the junior college question.

And last, but not least, the chamber went on record as sponsoring a slogan campaign in which the people of the town are invited to participate. An award of five dollars will be paid for an acceptable slogan.

The chamber wishes to make it plain hat he award will only be made in the event that it decides to accept one of the slogans submitted. Something sweet and snappy describing Pleasanton is wanted. Contributions may be turned in to any officer or member of the chamber. The acceptable slogan, will among other uses, be placed on the young civic body's letterheads.

FAITHFUL ROOTERS REWARDED BY BUD PERRY

For the purpose of creating a large and enthusiastic rooting section for all the football games played by the Amador Dons, of Pleasanton, Bud Perry, yell leader, donated all those attending three games in succession with pennants. The gifts were awarded at a student body meeting at the high school last Thursday afternoon.

The pennants are small purple felts with the lettering, "Amador High", in gold. It has been a problem for the yell leaders in the past to get enough rooters to attend the out of town games, and this method used by Perry has proved successful. This is the second year that Bud has been elected yell leader.

Among those who attended three games in a row are:

Seniors—Hazel Garatti, Josie Bottini, Enrica Adami, Mildred Sorenson, Evelyne Pickelle, Francis Bottini.

Hungry Doctor Visits a Cafeteria

Last week I dreamed I went into a cafeteria in Los Angeles. It was at the close of a strenuous Tuesday. The day had been hot. More people at the lecture and more were to be examined than could be comfortably cared for.

I entered the cafeteria, went to the balcony to rest and relax for a few minutes for I was too tired to eat. It wasn't long before I entered the line of march, empty tray in hand, wondering what I would choose for the evening meal. I was a bit nervous, I felt dazed and my frenzied brain was in a muddle.

My intelligence told me I must eat, but my stomach was on the warpath. The back of my neck was stiff and my right arm was numb. Suddenly, a panorama of salads passed before my eyes. Potato salad, cabbage salad, carrot salad mixed salads, all kinds of salads, all colors, all shades, all sizes, salads on the counter, salads in the air, salads on the floor, each waitress decorated with salads. Some wore salads on their heads, others carried salads in their pockets. Some salads were in dishes right side up, and others seemed to float in space with dishes upside down.

Suddenly the scene changed and I was confronted with stewed vegetables. Pots and kettles, all shapes, sizes, and colors. Pots were sitting on the counter. Kettles were sitting upon chairs. Pans were in the air, on the floor, on window sills and on and in each other. Stewed peas, and beans, and tomatoes and corn, and asparagus, and spinach!

Especially spinach!

There seemed to be a quart of spinach in every dish. (I don't like spinach.) Spinach leaves were dangling from the sauce pan handles, the waitresses had spinach around their necks, and spinach leaves seemed to fly through the air as butterflies.

How glad I was when stewed things, especially spinach, gave way to other dishes, and vanished from view. But alas, in my delirium, and unquenchable desire for nourishment, I was once more tormented with meats, roasts and fries and stews and boiled food, chicken and fish, and rabbit, and beef, and pork, and veal. Meat, meat, meat, some cold, some hot, but everything meat. Each kind of meat seemed to arise in the dish and argue and reason and browbeat me into taking its own kind. Out of sympathy, I decided to choose fish, but when I reached for the fish it swam around the corner, and every chicken flew away, and the rabbits ran, and the cow and pig vanished.

A well-dressed gentleman with a funny-looking instrument in his hand, tapped me on the shoulder and asked: "Why your troubled look? Are you not feeling well tonight?"

I explained my dilemma. I was hungry for food, but I wanted nothing I saw.

"Have you seen the wonderful assortment of cake?"

No, I hadn't, I replied, and therewith arose visions of cake after cake. No end of cake. Round ones, square ones, plain ones and cakes covered with frosting.

Just then some one jabbed me in the ribs with a carving fork. I jumped, my kindly well-dressed friend being also startled, and he who jabbed me with the carving fork held up before my vision a raw carrot. He dangled it before my eyes and suddenly every stewed vegetable, and every piece of meat turned into carrots. Some single and others were in bunches.

"Eat raw carrots," he yelled as he jabbed his fork into one of the attendant's right flank.

Bingo, and my back gave away under the terrific blow of some one behind me. "Your back is collapsing. You need help. You mustn't eat for eighteen days, you are too weak and nervous to eat."

I was too weak, too tired, too nervous to reason, but somehow I reached for a bowl of oyster soup. As I reached, my feet slipped, and I lost my balance. The bowl of soup grew larger and larger and larger. Suddenly, I realized that indescribably wonderful joy one would sense when he suddenly finds himself on an oyster cracker, floating safely on the surface of a sea of soup. But, alas, the cracker melted away and down, down I went.

Just before I went down the third time, I heard that grand and glorious discordant symphony on the shore as doctors and specialists, and chiropractors and osteopaths, and philosophers and electropathics, and professors and psychoanalysts, and meta and mental, and mind-over-matter, and this and that, threw out each his own life line, each just too short for me to reach, and because I couldn't reach any life line I was lost in the fathomless depths of life's angry sea of soup.

But down I went for the third time, thankful that I could no longer see those nearly two hundred life lines, no one of which could save struggling humanity.

And life to me is one long, long dream, and in my delirium I am having a wonderful time trying to splice those life lines, thus making it possible to reach sinking humanity before it sinks. Of course the lines are fantasies and figments of my silly imaginings, but I am only a partially grown-up boy, not yet having broken myself of aircastle building. You know we crazy folks do have a good time tying life lines together, and why not have a good time? For after all, no castle was ever built on earth until some one first built it in the air.

OAKLAND CAR IS DESTROYED BY FIRE IN NILES CANYON

Niles Fire Truck Keeps Conflagration from Spreading.

An automobile driven by Henry DeHaan, service station operator of Oakland, was almost completely destroyed by fire last Thursday evening near the first wooden bridge in Niles Canyon.

Cars from Niles hastened to the scene equipped with fire extinguishers, but arrived too late to save the machine from being gutted by the flames. The Niles fire truck also was rushed to the blaze by Fireman C. B. Crane, and did good work in preventing the fire from spreading to the countryside.

A short circuit was said to have been the cause of the fire breaking out. DeHaan noticed his machine was getting extremely warm when passing through Niles, and it was only shortly afterwards that it was enveloped in flames. Insurance on the car was thought to have expired two days prior to the fire.

PLAYERS' CLOTHES FOUND MISSING AT GAME LAST WEEK

Mystery Shrouds Disappearance of Local Students' Wearing Apparel

A number of players of the Amador Valley high, Pleasanton, were minus a number of garments at the close of the Amador-Castlemont game at Castlemont last Thursday afternoon. The boys left their clothes in dressing rooms and when they returned after the game several garments were missing.

Ed Dolstra was forced to come home in his football togs as all his clothes was gone. Bill Clarke and Ed Nott, former students of Castlemont high school, reported the loss of a suede jacket and a sweater. Just what became of the clothes is quite a mystery to the Dons. This was the first time such a thing had hapened at any of the football games.

Advantage of One Touchdown Held Throughout Game by Excellent Defense

From all accounts Tracy was prepared to give the Dons a bad afternoon. However, a long forward pass from Bob Silva to Joe Miller was completed for a touchdown early in the game. The conversion failed.

With the score 6-0 in favor of the Dons, Amador's linemen were able to cope with Tracy line attack, and the backfield simply waited for the Bulldogs' passing attack that they knew must come sooner or later.

The Dons' smothered the air route attack, and though unable to score further, Amador was continually threatening to increase the lead. At no time did Tracy get within the thirty yard line.

The defensive play of the Amador gridders has greatly improved over the first game, according to Coach Patterson, and the real hard tackling of the Dons caused the Tracy Bulldogs to fumble continually, with Amador recovering the ball in many cases.

Tracy's most desperate attack came immediately at the start of the second half. After making three consecutive first downs, their march was stopped. A beautiful kick by the Bulldogs went out of bounds on the one yard marker and put the Dons in a hole, but Muggs George worked out of it nicely. In the exchange of punts, Captain George gained an average of ten yards over Lee, the Tracy quarter back.

Action Coincides with Campaign of Junior Civic Body

Bracket Lamps To Be Placed on Telegraph Poles on Main Street

Following close on a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Pleasanton, in which the members declared themselves as in favor of sponsoring a campaign for better lighting on Main street, comes the knowledge that a lighting engineer was in town recently at the invitation of the Pleasanton town trusttees.

According to reports from the trustees, two, or possibly three, bracket lights will be installed on present telegraph poles in the near future to augment the present street lights. Two lights will be in the block between Rose and Division streets, and the third will possibly be erected in front of the Pleasanton Times. The plan is if these lights are satisfactory, to equip the full length of Main street, Pleasanton, with them.

The new lights will be 600 candle power lamps, the same as the present ones. The only difference will be that they will be mounted on brackets on the telephone poles instead of being suspended from cables across the street.

The news of this move comes in startling co-incidence with the action of the junior civic body. Its plan was to make a complete survey of lighting systems which would be practical in supplying Pleasanton's need. The survey would include figures of cost, erection, and maintenance. When complete, it was the juniors' plan to present their findings before the trustees, and request that some action be taken towards securing better lights on Main street.

ATHLETIC LEAGUE MEETS LAST WEEK IN HAYWARD GRILL

Basketball Classification and Debating League Are Two Topics Discussed

Exact classification of the basketball teams of the Southern Alameda County Athletic League was discussed at a meeting of the league held in Hayward some time ago.

The meeting, called by President R. O. Moyer, was well attended by the principals and coaches of all the high schools represented in the league. They decided to have the coaches of the different schools interchange to weigh and measure the boys and place them in their correct classifications, so as to avoid any misplacing of the basketball teams. Coach Munger, of Livermore, weighed Amador athletes Monday, while Coach Patterson weighed the Livermore lads Tuesday afternoon.

The fact that a debating league between the six schools in the league would be formed was also decided at the meeting.

A class C track meet was also organized,

Minstrel Show To Be Held by Club for Sign Benefit

Committees at Work on Affair Scheduled for October 22

That the Women's Improvement club, of Pleasanton, will present a minstrel show at the Amador high school gymnasium on October 22 for the benefit of the sign fund, was the business completed at special session of the club held recently. The meeting was called by Mrs. J. B. Lee, president.

Those taking part in the show are members of the club and are taking a great deal of interest in seeing that the affair goes over successfully. The episode of the "Native Blacks" promises to be one of the most humorous ever heard. Those taking part in it started work immediately. Mrs. Lee will direct the show.

Miss Geraldine George was appointed to take charge of the music which will be used for the occasion, and Mrs. William Martin will direct the publicity. Other committees will be named at a future date.

Much enthusiasm and co-operation has been received from members since the affair was proposed. Practically all the members will be in the cast and those not assisting there will be on committees.

The club, at this time, is asking the community to arrange its program for the month of October so as to assist it in making the show a big success. The sign fund deserves the help of all the citizens, the club points out, and accordingly it must have it or success will not follow.

NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

cent of his salary for beer and entertaining friends at the saloon, would have little left to buy a new car, repair the old, replace worn out tires and purchase gasoline and oil. The man spending his evenings at the corner saloon with bar-room pals, would not be apt to take his family to the show, and for dinner at a local restaurant afterwards. That, of course, would bring prosperity for the corner joint, but where would the theater owner and caterer come in on the picture?

No, dear reader, you cannot take money out of the channels of legitimate, honest business and turn it into the sewers of the liquor industry and bring joy to any but that base and contemptible traffic that a justly inflamed public made illegal when the Eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States was enacted.

Those who advocate the return of the saloon on the basis of either bringing back prosperity or the more specious plea that it will correct crime conditions, are not sincere. They want the saloon back because they love beer and whiskey better than the clean things of life. The beer plea is an opening wedge to a return of unrestricted use of alcoholic beverages. They are ashamed to come out openly and state the truth, so they deal in subterfuge and sophistry.

It is time for the temperance people to organize. The minority is loud and clamorous. It is time for the substantial, temperate man of America to make himself heard, and his opinion respected. It is time to tell organized booze, and the propagandist of liquor that America will not countenance for one instance the return of the old conditions, and those who would use the avenues of public information for the purpose of implanting the saloon again on American soil must turn exclusively to liquor advocates for their patronage. Trying to cram this rotten stuff down the throats of sober citizens is becoming nauseous, and the time, dear reader, to act is NOW!
